The American infantry soldier free 800 rounds a year-about ten times as many as the soldier of any other nation use in the same time. This amount of practice makes them the best marksmen in the world. We have an army of marksmen.

The board of officers before whom the new inventions in magazine guns were tested esheuted three for experiments to be made by troops in the field. These were the Lee, the Chaffee Rees and the Hotelskins. The army report was unfavorable to them all, the verdict being that the present Springfield rifle was the best rifle for the frontier.

But could troops armed with the Springfield hid their own with troops armed with a magazine gun?

No; for in every battle a time must come when the soldier shall be able to discharge his piace five or six times in a few seconds. Every magazine must be detachable. With the Lee this was the case. With the others it was not. It must be de"achable, because until at close quarters the final by the bear effective with a rifle leaded in the ordinary way, without the incumbrance of a magazine.

A new problem with the present system of rapid firing is how to get ammunit' no to a skirmish line. There is danger in the present system of ammunition boxes, containing 1,000 rounds and tightly nailed up. The soldier, having difficulty in opening it, not infrequently dashes the box against a tree to break it open. We have invented a box that overcomes this difficulty. It is watertight, opens readily and is perfectly safe to handle.—New York Herald Interview with Gen. S. V. Benet, Chief of Ordnance, U. S. A.

The New Parcel Peet.

The new postal convention which has just been concluded with the United States makes the territory from the northern boundary of the British possessions to the northern boundary of Mexico one postal union. Anything can now be sent from the United States to Canada or from Canada to any part of the United States, which can be put in a package that will not weigh more than four pounds and six ounces. The new treaty simply adds to the provisions of the existing conventions the right to send mail matter of the fourth class. Each country makes the regulations for the collection of customs on dutable articles, but the customs are to be collected in each instance at the post-office of address, and the person addressed will be to no inconvenience except to go to the post office and pay the duties as assessed by the customs office. The amount will be stated on a slip of paper attached to the package by the assisting customs effect at the echange office, from which the package will be forwarded to its destination.

Vain Disquietude.

The Rev. Mr. Herdman delivered an interesting address at the evening service yesterday on disquietude, taking for his text the sixth verse of psalm 39: "Surely every man walketh in a vain show, surely they are disquieted in vain—he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them." The rev. gentleman distinguished between commendable and false pride, and showed the latter was a truitful cause of those vain disquietings referred to by the Psatimist. Despair was also a great disquieter and should be combated by hope in thod's goodness and mercy. Scepticism and infidelity were also referred to as disturbers of the human sand, and to fight su cessfully against these. Christians should cling more closely to the Cross of Christ. The toolish man who buildly cried out "There is no thod," was not capable of doing the mischief of the person who seemingly believed in God, but who by an ungodly life gave the lie to this belief. The sermon was very good: "When ends life's transient dream, When death's cold suiten stream

FIRS HALL

The Imbune of yesterday has an arti cle on the rights of the brigade and Council in reference to use and control of the Fire Hall We do not agree with the Tribune on all the points set forth from its standmint. While we most from its standmint. heartily endorse the principle that ever oucouragement and printege compatible with the trust reposed in the Counc I in the care and control of town property we cannot see that the Conneil would be justified in handing over this or any other public property to the control of the brigade, or any other body of men, only having the right to the use or control of the hall in such ways and at such times as the brigade might choose to permit the council to use it. either for their own or for public meetings. The property certainly belongs to the ratepayers of Calgary and the Council are the peoples trustees. As to the statement in the Tribune that the Hall had already been let by the Council for one purpose and by the brigade for another purpose on the same night, the Mayor says is a mistake into which the Tribune has been unwittingly led. The Mayor and Council positively deny that the Hall has been rented at any time, or given for any public meeting, without first learning whether such meeting won d in any way interfere with the meetings or other interests of the brigade. We think it is a pity to have taken up this subject in the press at this moment, as an effort is being made by the Council to come to an ami cable arrangement with the brigade which will insure to the brigade everything they can fairly ask for, without yielding up the trust reposed in them.

OUR MINING INDUSTRIES The following communication from Mr. John Pattie, of Calgary, will be found at Mount Stephen and around Field ers. These mines are situated 130 miles from Calgary, in Kootenay District, British Columbia, and I may say right on the line of the Canadian Pacific railway. To assist in building a sme'ter and to devel op said mining property is a safe and sure investment which will reap in different ways to the people of Calgary a handsome return for the money invested. In regard to Mount Stephen there is one vein of ore called the Monarch vein or lode, on which there are four locations, namely: "Monarch," "Cornucopia," "Sunrise," and "Carleton" mines. The two first mentioned belong to Coffman Bos. & Co, and the last two to W. A. Ailan and myself, each extending 1,500 feet in length by 600 feet in width. Many districts can show ocher ore but none such large bodies at the surface. I speak from experience as a practical mining man of over twentyeight years spent in mining camps on te Pacific Coast, and any miner samines the vein will ogree, with me that as all the mines are situated tout 1,000 feet up from the r ilrust along the Kicking Hors river in front of capital and good Americae enterprise, and the output will astonish the mining hundred cents on the dollar! world. There is plenty of timber on the mountain side for all practical purposes to work them. The "Carrie" mine is owned by Calgary gentlemen. Blood and Iron are so mixed up in the Prince's system that have no place in his soul. But there is cellor is late. It is wonderful to see how widespread Socialism is in the Fatherland and what a sympathy exists for the combination in England and the United States. He who runs may read, If weare. But it he thinks the file of sols things for Germany on the eve of a coneral will suffer very little, and that with tinental battle, the Chancellor has lost locations and mines, first among them the present year a good one, everything the great political lessons handed down to him by History. Meanwhile Socialistic feeling doesn't seem to abate any, and one of these days the exclusive wealthy element of Europe may find their heads in brisk demand. We would advise Mackay, Gould, Vanderbilt et hoc genus omne (strangers though they be) to keep at this side of the Duck Pond after little, and the best thing the European possessors of "offensive riches" can do now is what the Win Mon of Calgary have done-patronize a tew reliable in surance agencies. THE TURN OF THE TIDE

The Empire is always to the front with something good : "For some time past Great Britain has suffered from one of those periods of depression of trade which are recurrent. It has not been so severe as in former cases, but it has been prolonged. Now, however, the turn of the tide has set in. Trade reports, the commercial papers and the general press all speak of the improvement and great er activity. Every branch of trade seems to be benefitting by the impetus. Unlike the position he would find himself in here, if he is the imst qualified of the caudidates for the signation sought, he is practically sure of the appointment, for the leading Ameritean brigades are fortified against the introduction of aldermanic parrorage, the disastrous results of which, it will be noticed, some of them have experienced. it will be remarked, on perusing the descriptions of American brigades, that in the United States a great deal of importance is attached to the drill and exercise of the firemen, and that in the larger cities there are systems of gradation which encourage the men to perfect themselves in their duties. In Montreal sourcely any attention is paid to the drilling of the men, and they receive no encouragement to improve themselves, Bismarck believes there is no danger of the newest recruit being on the same a European war just at present he will footing as regards pay and everyting elso probably get along much the same as as the experienced veteran. The deficthis kind, but those capable of judging other coersionists do in times of external lency in the equipment here which is more particularly apparent is in timediers and military prisons are just the saving apparatus at the stations. Our firemen have generally to run down stairs from their rooms to the engine rooms, run to the horse stails, unhitely the norses, and lead them to the shalls. In the American cities the man slide down vertical bars fixed in man-hotes in the floors of their dormitories and in a few seconds time are in the engine rooms. Their horses are automatically released from their stalls when the alarm sounds. and by the time the men slide down are standing in the shafts ready to be hitched up. It is evident to the dullest that this saves much valuable tir e and is a great advantage. A few of our stations have electric attachments to the hores' stalls, but they have been put up at the expense of the men.

> Altogether these descriptions of the fire departments of American citles show that our brigade requires considerable improvement before it is brought up to the proper standard."

However, there is hope for Montreal. Out of evil sometimes cometh good, and if the late disastrous fire in that wealthy and beautiful city has been the one for the authorities to adopt the American "improvement," tuture blazes will be few and far between. The consciousness that we don't know everything may be purchased at an enormous price, but after all, the knowledge is worth the money.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The other day Captain Heigham was considered unfit for the position of Chief of the Montreal police because he was an "Englishman and a Protestant," and now we find a reverend Christian heroone Charles Stirling, rector of the parish of New Molden-marching on to war against his Queen because happened to ent r a Roman Catholic church at Mentone. The Rev Charles wrote to the Queen's secretary, Sir Henry Ponsonhy, complaining of this idola rous act of Eng and s sovereign, but a Sir Heary's explanation was polite and slightly contemptuous, Mr. Stirling, who evidently carries his celestial "pass" in his mighty brains, pronounced against Victoria a sentence of deposition. Under the heading, "Calgary's Tribute to Dewdney," the Brandon Times of Thursday in quoting the Herald's report of the recent banquet in honor of the Lieut -Governor very sensibly remarks: 'Few public men of the Northwest have come in for more abuse from ms political opponents than His Honor Lieut-Gov Dewdney of the Northwest Territories. The organs of the Grit Party have incessantly tept pointing out that he was incapable of m maging the affairs of the Territories. His Honor has lived through all this vitaperation and today stands high in the estimation of the leading men of the Territories. This is evi-denced in a marked degree by the grand reception accorded to him last week by the citizens of Calgary and the district adjoining. The Calgary HERALD of last week voices the sentiments of the peo-ple of that district and other parts of the Territories in its full report of the bans quet referred to. Those who delight in picturing the Indians of the North sest as in a state of starvation owing to the maladministration of their affairs had better take note of the favorable circumstances in which the Indian is placed and not try to frighten away immigrants by false reports. If however, Mr. Dewdney's exposition of Indian affairs redounds to his ability in managing them, what does it do to the department and its head at Ottawa. Where comes in the truthfulness of the charges of mismanagement when the actual state of affairs are thus clearly laid before the people by the Lieutenant-Governor-"

PUBLIC MEETING.

The meeting called by the Mayor last night in the Fire Hall to consider matters of importance in consection with the town, and the advisability of sending delegrates from Calgary to Ottawa to press these matters on the attention of the government, was very largely attended.

The Mayor in opening the meeting explained the object for which it was called, and then invited discussion on the various resolutions submitted.

After a good deal of discussion the following requests were embodied in a memorial to the Dominion Government.

1. The granting of a responsible local government to the ferritories.

2. The abolition, on the best terms that can be made, of the C. P. R. monopoly clause.

2. The abolition, on the best terms that can be made, of the C. P. R monopoly clause.

3. The granting of the right to grant milway charters in the Ferritories to the Territorial legislature.

4. The placing on the free list of such machinery as is needed for smelting and mining purposes and is not manufactured in Canada.

5. The session, every other year, of the Territorial legislature at Calgary.

6. The construction at Calgary of a court house and juit.

7. The granting of aid to Alberta in order to further the interests of immigration into the district.

8. The throwing open of the Sarce-reserve to settlement.

9. Opening old sections and leases to homestead settlement.

10. The early construction of a bridge ever Sheep Creek.

Other matters of a local nature were well and ably discussed and after the passing of a resolution of thanks to Sir Hector Langevin for the Bow river bridge, and a resolution asking the Town Council to Ottawa, the meeting adjourned.

I took her hand and prossed it,

She turned her face away; My coming fate I guessed it— She could not say me nay. I saw a tear-drop tremble Caught on her downy check, Said I, "You well dissemble The joy you will not speak.

The Globe has once more naded the poor man's shirt to itse literal mas. From this time forward it is determined, so far as it can, to make this marment, the picture-question is used in Camadian politics. The organ never rese to the height of true chaqueace as we in its pathenic contrast of the roomy shirts of the anti-ariff cra with the shrankon underwear in which high duties force a free people to house their forms. The strength of this indistment of Sir John is the well-grounded charge that the tariff cuts the tail from the laboring man's shirt. Before the National policy enriched grinding monoidists with money wrung from the poverty of the poor the Globe justly claims that the meanest Canadian could stand proudly erect in the consciousness of his own ability to pay for antaxed flannel to make a shirt that was reshirt from cella: to basement. If this last effort to rully the manbood of the country in defence of the poor man's shirt does not fire the dead heart of this people, then we deserve to become a nation of shirtless elaves."—Evening Telegram.

A justice of the peace in Samtoga county recently joined a pair who were so embararssed that they hardly knew what they were doing. The man were a white strew hat which he whirfed on his finger before the ceremony began. When told to atmosphere the ceremony began. When told to atmosphere the ceremony began. When told to atmosphere the imped before the justice with the greatest alacrity. For a few moments he did not know what to do with the last, but finally found his way out of the dimentity by patting it between his knees. This was foo much for the bride. With the handle of her parallel is escaph the hat, pulled it from its position and then, abushed at her audacity, dropped hat and parasol to the floor.

The same fusite tells a story of another couple who came to be married. The man was dreadfully paralled, and without realizing the net pulled a vigar from his pocket and began wifring it around. When that portion of the ceremony was reached where order and groom join hands, he happened to have the crast in his right hand. What to do with the cigar he apparently did not know. The justice paused a minute and they arani directed the pair to join hands. By this time the poor fellow's embarpaes mean directed the pair to join hands. By this time the poor fellow's embarpaes mean was pairful. He gave one agonized look at the justice of the pence and stack the cigar from between the man's tips.

Shooting it Paniter in a Negro's Arms

While a gang of negroes on a construction train on the Mississippi Valley Railroad was repairing the track about two miles south of Shelby station to-day a panther came from the woods and attacked a negro laborer, springing upon his aboulder. The negro immediately grabbed the panther in his arms and gave him an old-fashioned bear hug, not forgetting at the same time to yell for his life. The panther evidently became more frightened than the negro, chan ed his tactics and tried to escape, but the negro was too much for him, as he held him until conductor Caldwell could get his gun and come to his assistance, when Isidwell shot the panther in the negro's arms. General Manager J. M. Edwards came along in his car shortly afterward, took the animal aboard and brought it to this city to-night. It measures six feet from tip to tip and is a ferocious specimen.

Salicylie Acid.

Professor E. H. Bartley, of Brooklyn, ofter careful observation, expresses the befort that the use of anlicylie acid in treating rheumatism, if long continued, impairs the digestion and inflames the kidneys. He says also that a serious objection to the use of anlicylie acid is the fact that many samples found in the market contain more or less carboile acid. It is now almost entirely manufactured from this very poisonous substance and, unless great care is exercised, an appreciable amount of carbolic acid is left in the product. Some writers think that most of the fatal accidents recorded from the use of salicylic acid are due to the presence of carbolic acid. From careful consideration Profusor Bartley is compelled to regard the use of salicylic acid usually employed in beer at from twelve to fifteen grains per gallon; or, from one to one and a half grains to the glass. As many men habitually drink twenty-five glasses during the day, they take from twenty-five to thirty-seven grains of the acid per day. The medicinal dose is usually stated to be from ten to twenty grains.

How to Put the Baby to Sleep.

A mother tells in Babyhood how she puts a wide awake baby to sleep. She takes a large piece of canton flannel, wrings it rather dry out of warm water, then puts it closely fiver the baby's head so as to cover both ears and eyes. There is a brief struggle, then fulst, and in less than five minutes baby is first asleep.

Three Great Evils.

The "pope's bull against the comet" is said to have been issued by Calixtus III, who, shortly after the appearance of Halley's comet, in 1456, ordered that the church bells to rung daily at the hour of noon, and that the supplication, "Lord, save us from the covil, the Turk and the comet," the added to the litanies. This expression has long since been coutted.

The Last Rose of Summer.

This exquisite bit of music verse (if we except "Home, Sweet Home") has worn better than any other English ballad. The music was taken from a Sicilian air and ingrafted into the opera of "Martha." The words are by Tom Moore, and are among the most delightful and contain the most delicate sentiment of any written by that captivating writer of ballads.

Sension and Frement.

Sensior Thomas II. Benton used to reside in this house that I am doing business in, and it was from the front steps of this building that he kicked John C. Fremont, the path-finder, who was paying his addresses to the sensior's daugnter, Jessie, at the time. Ben too had an intense dislike for the sultor, but Fremont would not be bluffed with any surt of mild treatment like that. He kept on courting, and finally he and Miss Jessie were married. Some years after that Ben fra presented the scaps and plans of his is lustrious son-in-law to the United States senate and expounded discause with characteristic eloquence. A friend of his, well knowing the senator's previous antipathy to, Framont, asked bum bow it was that he then esteemed him so highly. A long discussion took place on the propriety of establishing a weekly market. The Mayor liked the idea. Mr. Allan saw the great difficulty lay in the fact that sattlers could get no money for their outsmothing but tak value out in trade. Mr. Orr saw no market place available and the council had no money to build one, while Mr. Collins thought the public market idea was neither good for producer or consumer. He didn't think the markets could be just yet such as would induce buyers to try them. He would be glad to do all be could in the establishment of a public market if he saw his way to its success.
